

How-to Guide

Subscribe to Summer with Reading Lists!

Step 1: Subscribe to Summer Reading Lists

- 1) Go to the Bookshare Summer Reading page (www.bookshare.org/cms/campaign/summer-2017)
- 2) Select one of the Reading Lists that Bookshare has created for its members.
- 3) Look over the books that are on the list, and then subscribe to the list.
- 4) This Summer Reading List will now appear on your My Reading Lists page and on your My Bookshare page
- 5) You can open or download your books all summer long!

Questions?

Q: Will there be more Reading Lists to which I can subscribe and assign to my students?

A: Yes! Bookshare is actively working on adding more Reading Lists that will replace the Special Collections. We hope that you will like these new additions that make it easier to discover books and get them to your students.

Q: If my account also is associated with a school account, can my teachers assign me this list

A: Yes! As an individual member, you can subscribe to reading lists on your own, just as you can pick your own books to download. However, your teacher might want to assign a specific reading list to you as well, so you may see some other reading lists appear.

Q: When would I copy the Reading List instead of subscribe to it?

A: If you want to take a “snapshot” of a Reading List that Bookshare is managing, then you might want to copy it, name it as your own, add your own books or remove some. Bookshare may continue to add books to their public Reading List, but your copy of the list is yours.
